

Veterans Assistance Program

About the Veterans Assistance Program

- An Always Best Care exclusive
- Once approved, a client may start care with the assurance that funds will be coming
- If an approved client does not receive VA benefits, cost of care is paid for
- Valid for veterans and surviving spouses
- VA accredited attorneys*
- Free help filing for benefits
- See our website for complete details

How It Helps Your Patients

- Once approved, a patient can start care immediately knowing costs will be covered
- Experienced legal assistance cutting through red tape
- Faster claims handling
- Compassionate care and help getting the funds they deserve

* Always Best Care partners with the Center for Elder Veterans Rights, a Tennessee-based law firm, for this program. The CFEVR practices only VA law, and does not do any franchise planning which involves the purchase of a franchise product. The Center does not practice any other form of law which could create billable hours.
